SUBPOENA OF THE GREEN CASE V. SIG SAUER
CIVIL ACTION NO. 22CV01002(JAG)

On March 1, 2024, at 2:16 pm, an email was received from the Legal Affairs of the Puerto Rico Police Bureau, referring to us the Subpoena related to lawsuit of the Agt. [Agte.] Green vs. Sig Sauer, filed in the Federal District Court of Puerto Rico (Civil Action Case No. 22CV01002(JAG)), which states in Subpoena 341-2) that it must be indicated whether the requested information exists (Certified copy of any report, record or statistics issued by the NPPR, concerning accidental critical discharges involving pistols Sig. Sauer P-320. This record also includes incidents that occurred with standard-issue weapons Smith & Wesson MP, Glock, Rifle, Colt M6, Diamond Long Gun (Non-NPPR), and Sig Sauer-516 Rifle.

After searching the archives (Use of Force System), which is operational since the end of 2019 to the present, the following information was found:

Since the requested date to the closing of this report, eighty-four (84) incidents of Negligent Critical Discharges have occurred, listed as follows:
